Union provides electric hookups (110 V) and water connections. Set-up begins Friday February 23rd at 9:00 am. There will be plenty of space for your use. You must have a suitable water hose for DHEC and any drop cords or accessories needed for your cooking. Please bring 150 feet of hose and electrical cords with you. Your site must be left in the same manner as you found it.

- 3) All contestants must adhere to all health, electrical, fire, and other codes applicable to this event.
- 4) For a 30 Amp service, there will be an additional charge of $25.00.
- 5) By completing the agreement below, you agree that Union County Coon Hunters Association of South Carolina, Union County, the Union County Tourism Board, Union County Fairgrounds, Carolina Smoke-N-Grass Festival volunteers and the South Carolina Barbeque Association WILL NOT be liable for any loss or damage from any cause.

Rules and Regulations:

- 1) Registration: Each team must register upon arrival so that a cooking site may be assigned.
- 2) DHEC and/or Fire Marshal Requirements: Plastic or rubber gloves, meat thermometer, and five (5) gallon hand washing station with soap and paper towels must be available on your site. Each site should have a #10 fire extinguisher. Adequate space will be provided to each cooking team 20' x 30' (If you're not bringing a trailer and if you can use a smaller space, please notate in the "Any specific requests" section on the Application Form). Event organizers will explain any new fire codes as applicable.
- 3) Meat: Only the meat issued by the event organizer shall be prepared and cooked on-site and submitted for judging and served to the public. All meat must remain on the team's site, once issued, and all remaining meat, not submitted to judges for turn-in, shall be made available for serving the public. All leftover meat will be collected by the event staff, approximately 30 minutes prior to awards. Any "Throw Downs" are amongst the cook teams and SCBA, themselves.
- 4) Cooking Fuels/Cookers: Approved cooking fuels are wood, charcoal, propane or butane gas, or electricity. Any cooker, homemade or commercially manufactured, which fits the cooking site, will be allowed to compete. Electric or hand operated rotisseries or manual rotating shelves are also permitted.
- 5) Cleanliness and Sanitation: All teams are to maintain cook sites in an orderly, safe, and clean manner. Good sanitary practices are to be utilized during preparation, cooking and handling of meat. The use of sanitary gloves is always required while handling food. Failure to use sanitary gloves could result in disqualification. Teams must prepare the meat under cover. Teams are responsible for cleaning their site, prior to departure. Any violations shall be corrected immediately and/or the team may be subject to disqualification.
- 6) Category: The pork meat category is defined as pork, fresh and uncured. A case of refrigerated butts, per team, will be handed out Friday afternoon. You must provide all materials for your cooking needs. Union County Coon Hunters Association will provide 2 oz. cups, pints and/or quarts for guest sampling.
- 7) Cook's Meeting: All head cooks must attend a Cook's Meeting to be held on Friday, February 23rd at 3:30 pm. Rules will be explained, and turn-in boxes will be distributed. Contact: Brian Gaston (864) 426-1347 if you are arriving late.
- 8) Judging: Judging will be conducted by South Carolina Barbeque Association certified judges. Blind judging will be used. No markings shall be allowed on any of the boxes submitted for turn-in to the judges.
- 9) Meat Turn-In Time: There will be an allowance of a fifteen (15) minute turn-in window. The turn-in window will begin ten (10) minutes before the top of the hour until five (5) minutes after the top of the hour. Any team that fails to have their entry submitted for judging due to failure to meet the turn-in time will be disqualified.
 - Pork - 10:00 am (9:50 – 10:05 am)
 - Ribs - 11:00 am (10:50 – 11:05 am) Note: Rib participation is a team option.
- 10) Awards: Awards will be given out on Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 p.m., following the judging process and scoring.
